

"Out Of All the Creatures In the Sea, You Have A Question For Me?"

Mrs. Bell

The Crafty Counselor

Includes 60 Creature Question Cards and 24 Take the Bait Cards.
(color and black + white)

Print pages on cardstock. Laminate for extra durability. Cut out all Creature Question and Take the Bait Cards. Place upside down in a pile (or spread out across a table). One at a time, students "fish" for a card, read their catch out loud, and then answer the question written on the card. If they choose a Take the Bait Card (worm with no written question), they get to tell the group a fun fact about themselves.

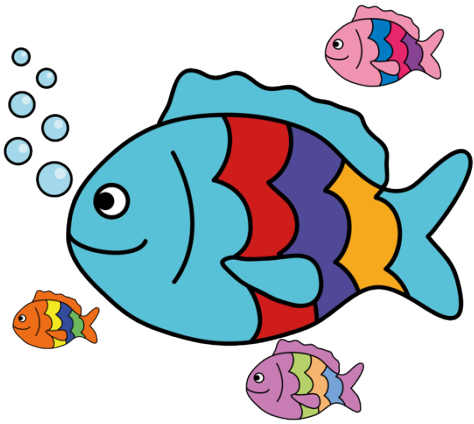

For a twist, have students "fish" a Creature Question Card and ask the person to their right to answer the question that is written. If they choose a Take the Bait Card with no written question, they get to make up and ask a question of their choice.

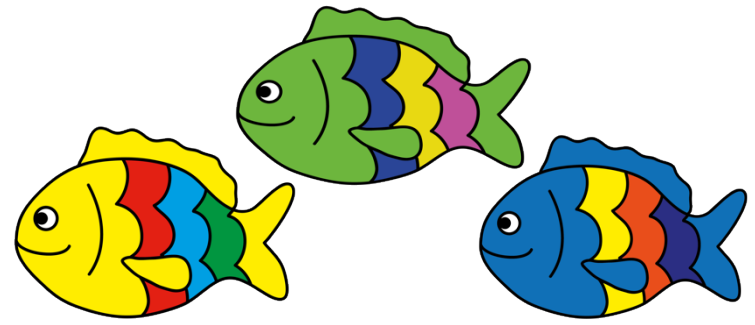

Have fun getting to know your group/class with:

"Out of All the Creatures in the sea, you have a question for me?"

If you could take all of us one place, where would we go?

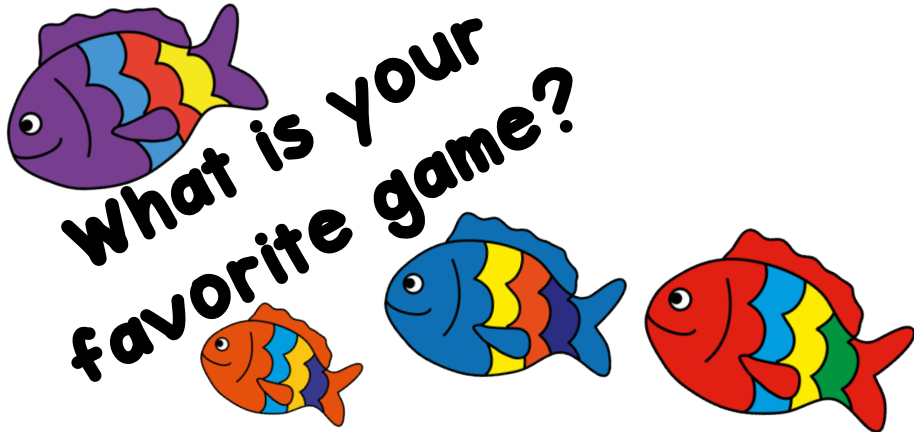

What is your favorite desert?

What is your favorite food?

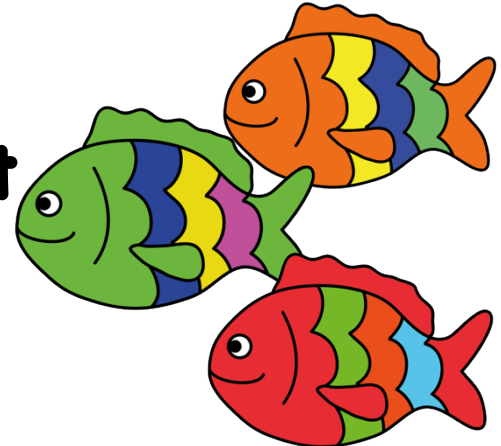

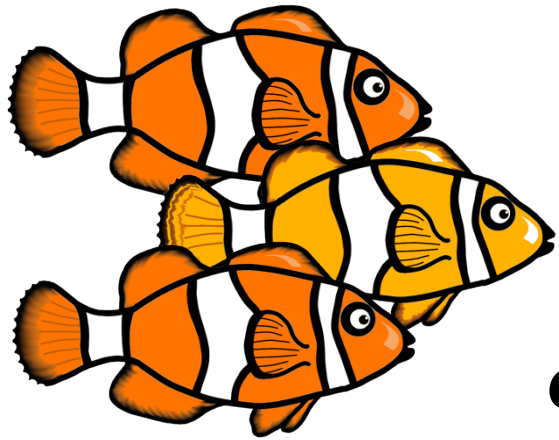

Would you rather be too hot or too cold?

What is your favorite game?

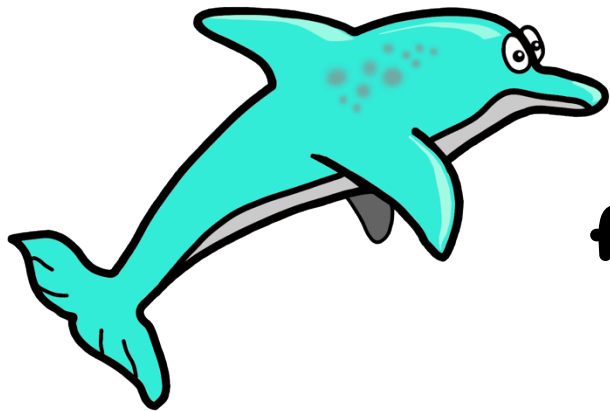

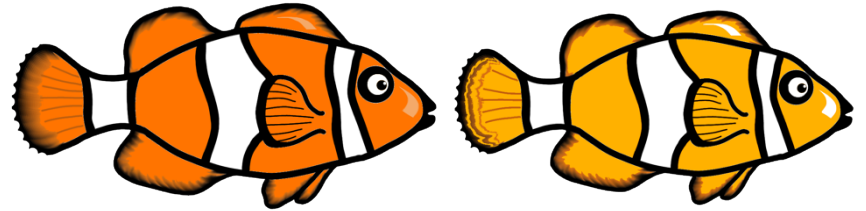

What is your most favorite memory?
