Smile and say hi,

Introduce yourself,

Find out what they like,

Talk about something you like,

Invite them to do something with you,

Name a future activity you could do together,

Good-bye!

Smile and say hi,

Introduce yourself,

Find out what they like.

Talk about something fun,

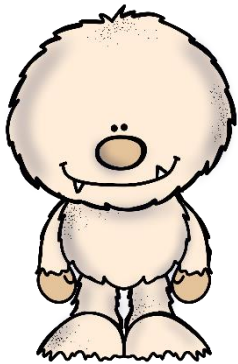

Invite them to do something with you,

Name a future activity you could do together,

Good-bye!

There is a after school club you want to join.

How could you get to know some of the members?

You have to pick a partner. There are a few people you think you'd want to work with.

How can you find people to work with?

You want to play soccer at recess.

How could you ask people to play?

He said he doesn't want to be your friend anymore.

How would you handle this?
