

Behavior Cards

Modifiers & Motivators

Mrs. Bell The Crafty Counselor

I was at a seminar and the person sitting next to me kept sharing their opinions with me while the speaker was presenting. After a few minutes of her talking while the teacher was talking, the presenter put an upside down paper on the table in front of her. She turned it over and it read, "Is what you are doing right now helping you learn this information?" She didn't say another word.

When students are off task or misbehaving, drop the appropriate card off at their desk. It is an easy way to let students know they need to modify their behavior without drawing attention to the situation or disrupting class time.

When students are doing what is expected of them, or you think they could use some kinds words, use the motivational cards for extra encouragement. The impact a compliment can have is amazing.

Download includes:

36 Behavior Cards (18 to redirect behavior, 18 to encourage) and 9 blank cards
Simply, print, laminate, cut apart and you are ready for classroom or guidance lesson use! Keep the strategy fresh by switching up the cards monthly!

Is what you are doing helping you to reach your goals?
Please show me you are ready to learn.
What are you doing?
You have great ideas. Keep thinking!
Do you need a few minutes think time?
Is your behavior appropriate?
Is what you are doing helping you to finish your work?
I like how you turned your day around! Keep up the good work.
Are you working with your team?
How can you get back on task?
How could you be making a better choice?
Are your actions helping or hurting?
What I am doing from today.

Mrs. Bell The CRAFTY Counselor

You are being a good listener

Is your behavior appropriate?

Is what you are doing helping you to finish your work?

I like how you turned your day around! Keep up the good work.

Are you working with your team?

How could you be making a better choice?

Are you working with your team?

How can you get back on task?

Are your actions helping or hurting?

What I am doing from today.

Stay Connected:

Mrs. Bell
The Crafty Counselor