

Cut & Glue Choice Sorts

Six Cut and Glue Activities

Featuring 88 Different
Good Choice vs. Poor Choice Scenarios

By: Mrs. Bell The Crafty Counselor

Cut & Glue

Choice Sorts

Two Sortable Versions

Choice Sort

Name: _____

Good Choice	Poor Choice

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

Choice Sort

Name: Ashey Bell

Good Choice	Poor Choice
Asking if it is okay before you take something	Inviting someone who is alone or recess to play with you
Waiting patiently in a long line	Helping someone to get the answer right
Holding the door open for others	Turning in lost money you found on the floor
Saying something nice about someone else	Putting the books neatly away on the shelves
Talking the truth when you mess up	Helping clean up a mess
Laughing at someone who fell	Keeping money you watched someone drop
Inviting a new student to play	Skipping to the front of the line
Leaving all the toys outside after recess	Making a mess worse and then walking away
Leaving art supplies in the room	Closing the door on someone
Helping someone who fell get back up	Lying to cover up a mistake
Reporting a fire ant hill to your teacher	Making fun of someone who got the answer wrong
Sharing art with others	Taking without asking first
Keeping all the art supplies for yourself	Saying something mean about someone else
Taking turns going down the slide

Four Puzzle Versions

Choice Sort Puzzles

Name: _____

Good Choices

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

Pushing someone on the playground	Being noisy during a quiet test time	Keeping your feet close to your chair so you don't trip others
Not letting someone sit at the lunch table	Making fun of others	Covering mouth when coughing
Playing nicely with others	Sitting quietly while others are testing	Tripping someone on purpose
Scooting over to make room for others to sit down	Letting everyone be themselves	Coughing on others

Choice Sort Puzzles

Name: Ashey Bell

Good Choices

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

Playing nicely with others	Sitting quietly while others are testing	Keeping your feet close to your chair so you don't trip others
Scooting over to make room for others to sit down	Letting everyone be themselves	Covering mouth when coughing
Pushing someone on the playground	Being noisy during a quiet test time	Tripping someone on purpose
Not letting someone sit at the lunch table	Making fun of others	Coughing on others

Featuring 88 Different Scenarios

By: Mrs. Bell The Crafty Counselor

Choice Sort

Cut & Glue

Choice Sort

Name: _____

Good Choice	Poor Choice

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

- Leaving your stuff on the floor where it could be stepped on
- Ignoring the new student
- Keeping all the art supplies for yourself
- Putting a stick in the fire with plastic and mess pile with the oils
- Yelling at other people
- Clean up and bring in the recess toys
- Sharing art with others
- Turning the slide around
- Inviting someone who is alone at recess to play with you
- Helping someone to get the answer right
- Making a mess worse and then walking away
- Shoving to the front of the line
- Laughing at someone who fell
- Invite a new student to play with you
- Leave all the toys outside after recess
- Clean up and bring in the recess toys
- Report a fire ant hill to your teacher
- Yelling at other people
- Sharing art with others
- Keeping all the art supplies for yourself
- Taking turns going down the slide

Choice Sort

Name: _____

Good Choice	Poor Choice
Asking if it is okay before you take something	Inviting someone who is alone at recess to play with you
Waiting patiently in a long line	Helping someone to get the answer right
Holding the door open for others	Making a mess worse and then walking away
	Shoving to the front of the line

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

Choice Sort

Name: _____

Good Choice	Poor Choice

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

- Laughing at someone who fell
- Invite a new student to play with you
- Leave all the toys outside after recess
- Clean up and bring in the recess toys
- Report a fire ant hill to your teacher
- Yelling at other people
- Sharing art with others
- Keeping all the art supplies for yourself
- Taking turns going down the slide
- Inviting someone who is alone at recess to play with you
- Helping someone to get the answer right
- Making a mess worse and then walking away
- Shoving to the front of the line
- Laughing at someone who fell
- Invite a new student to play with you
- Leave all the toys outside after recess
- Clean up and bring in the recess toys
- Report a fire ant hill to your teacher
- Yelling at other people
- Sharing art with others
- Keeping all the art supplies for yourself
- Taking turns going down the slide

Choice Sort

Name: Ashley Bell

Good Choice	Poor Choice
Asking if it is okay before you take something	Inviting someone who is alone at recess to play with you
Waiting patiently in a long line	Helping someone to get the answer right
Holding the door open for others	Turning in lost money you found on the floor
Saying something nice about someone else	Putting the books neatly away on the shelves
Telling the truth when you mess up	Helping clean up a mess
	Taking without asking first
	Saying something mean about someone else

Choice Puzzles

Cut & Glue

Choice Sort Puzzles

Name: _____

Good Choices

Poor Choices

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

Pushing someone on the playground

Being noisy during a quiet test time

Keeping your feet close to your chair so you don't trip others

Not letting someone sit at the lunch table

Making fun of others

Covering mouth when coughing

Playing nicely with others

Sitting quietly while others are testing

Tripping someone on purpose

Scooting over to make room for others to sit down

Letting everyone be themselves

Coughing on others

Choice Sort Puzzles

Name: _____

Good Choices

Poor Choices

Mrs. Bell
The CRAFTY
Counselor

Pushing someone on the playground

Being noisy during a quiet test time

Keeping your feet close to your chair so you don't trip others

Not letting someone sit at the lunch table

Making fun of others

Covering mouth when coughing

Playing nicely with others

Sitting quietly while others are testing

Tripping someone on purpose

Scooting over to make room for others to sit down

Letting everyone be themselves

Coughing on others

Choice Sort Puzzles

Name: Asney Bell

Good Choices

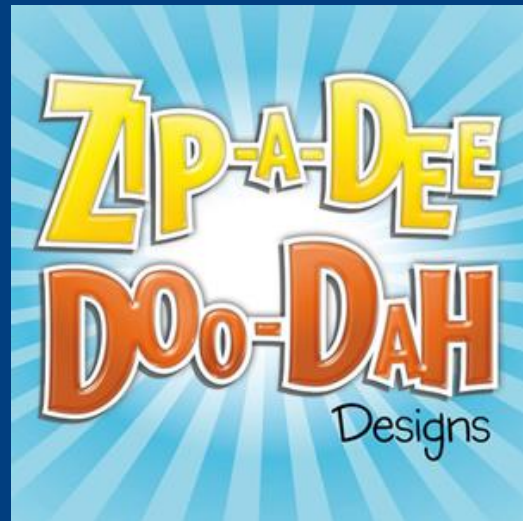

Poor Choices

stay connected

By: Mrs. Bell The Crafty Counselor

Credits:

By: Mrs. Bell The Crafty Counselor